Eclisse is a leader in the production of pocket sliding door systems. Founded on January, 1989 by Luigi De Faveri, Eclisse has a network of 33 representative offices and more than 1,900 retailers throughout Italy. Eclisse systems are sold throughout Europe and in the major non-European countries through a network of distributors and key customers. Eclisse has subsidiaries in France, Poland, Austria, the Czech Republic, Spain, Slovakia, Brazil, Germany, Romania, United Kingdom and Portugal. All production plants are located in Italy, at the production site in Pieve di Soligo, Treviso.
